

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Fraudulent Emails Using the Name of Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited

The general public is hereby informed that several email messages purporting to originate from or authored by Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited and containing our logo are currently in circulation.

We have been informed by some of our clients that updated personal preferences and account information were requested in the aforementioned fraudulent email messages. A link to perform the updates was also embedded in these scam emails.

Please note that these email messages are fraudulent and are not sent by Ansbacher.

Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited does not send email messages requesting updated personal information, personal preferences or account information. If you have provided personal or account information in response to a fraudulent email or website, report the incident to us immediately.

Do not provide any personal or account information to anyone claiming to be affiliated with Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited through email.

FRAUDULENT EMAILS

Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited is committed to keeping your account and personal information safe and secure. In light of the foregoing, we have assembled some useful tips for detecting fraudulent email.

It is important to note that fraudulent emails may look like official Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited emails and try to trick you into visiting a counterfeit website and providing your personal and/or account information.

An example of a fraudulent email is provided below.

From: request@ansbacherbs.bs

To:

Subject: Information Center: Preference Update Request.

Date: Mon, XX Apr 20XX

Dear Customer,

You are required to perform an update on your personal preferences.

Please Click Here to login and update.

Regards

Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited

The highlighted areas of the sample fraudulent email represent information that have been included in the communication in order to deceive the recipient of the email.

The domain name used in this sample ansbacherbs.bs does not belong to and is not affiliated with Ansbacher (Bahamas) Limited. Our domain name is ansbacher.bs.